

Basic Detail Report

Vase

Date

c. 1920

Medium

Sterling silver, gold

Description

Hexagonal silver vase with a band of damascened gold ornament overlaid and beaten into the silver midway from the base in a rhododendron pattern. On the neck of the vase is an inscription in raised gold letters: If eyes were made for seeing, then beauty is its own excuse for being.

Dimensions

height: 12 in. 30.5 cm

Classifications

Silver

Credit Line

Gift of George G. Booth

Department

Decorative Arts

Object number

bc20.1